PROSPECTUS
2026-27

Admission into Bachelor of Veterinary Science & Animal Husbandry (B.V.Sc. & A.H) under NRI / NRI-Sponsored and Self finance Quota

P. V. Narsimha Rao Telangana Veterinary University
Rajendranagar, Hyderabad-500030, India

ON-CAMPUS ACTIVITIES

P. V. Narsimha Rao Telangana Veterinary University, Hyderabad, a premier University offering high-quality education in Veterinary & Animal Sciences in the state of Telangana was established in 2014. It has a rich history tracing its roots back to Osmania University and Andhra Pradesh Agricultural University. The College of Veterinary Science at Hyderabad, the oldest constituent college of the university was established in 1946. The university offers undergraduate, postgraduate and doctoral programs in veterinary and allied sciences.

This university is recognized globally, and many graduates have secured admissions into prestigious institutes worldwide for further studies. Students from this university also practice as veterinarians in various countries after passing the required licencing exams. The university's strong foundation in veterinary education and research provides students with the opportunity to work on the latest developments in Veterinary and Animal Sciences and prepares them for global careers. Many graduates from this university have secured placements in top organizations, leveraging the university's strong reputation and industry connections. Some graduates have been selected for the most prestigious civil services in India. Various career paths offer veterinarians the opportunity to make a meaningful impact on animal health, welfare, and public health.

With a view to encourage Non-Resident Indians (NRIs) who wish to pursue higher education in their motherland, the university has started offering Bachelor of Veterinary Science and Animal Husbandry (B.V.Sc. & A.H) for NRIs from the academic year 2024-25. Studying in India can provide NRIs with a chance to reconnect with their heritage and contribute to India's growth.

This university also started self-finance quota seats for students aspiring to become veterinarians but could not secure merit-based admission, on payment of higher fees.

Bachelor of Veterinary Science and Animal Husbandry (B.V.Sc. & A.H) is a five and half year degree program designed as per Veterinary Council of India (VCI) curriculum and covers various aspects (basic veterinary sciences, clinical, para-clinical, and livestock production) of veterinary science.

NRI Quota includes

- Non-Resident Indian (NRI): In case of general public, an individual who is an Indian citizen or person of Indian origin is said to be NRI in any financial year if the candidate satisfies the following conditions:
